

United States District Court for the District of Columbia

Public and Media Advisory

Please be advised of the following arrangements and procedures for public and media access to the hearing scheduled in United States v. Trump, 23-CR-257 (TSC), at 10:00 am on Friday, August 11, 2023.

The E. Barrett Prettyman Courthouse and the William B. Bryant Annex (“Courthouse”) will be open to the public and media by 7:30 am.

Media Access to Proceeding

- Two media rooms will be open for this proceeding, with at least 100 seats for members of the media.
- The media rooms will open by 8:15 am. A media room pass is required for entry.
- To check in for a seat in a media room, members of the media should report to the green marble stand near the central elevator bank on the first floor of the E. Barrett Prettyman Courthouse, beginning at 8:00 am.
- Seats in the media rooms will be first-come, first-served and may be limited to two per organization, depending upon the level of interest.
- Media organizations that have at least one reporter with a long-term media room pass are guaranteed at least one media room seat.
- Seats also will be available for members of the media in the courtroom where the proceeding will take place. Members of the media interested in a seat in the “live” courtroom should so advise court staff upon checking in. The courtroom seats will be assigned in an equitable manner (e.g., pool, lottery). As a reminder, all electronic devices must be powered off while in the courtroom.

Public Access to Proceeding

- An overflow courtroom, with approximately 80 seats, will be open for members of the public to observe a live audio/video feed of the proceeding.
- The location of the overflow courtroom will be posted in the Courthouse atrium by 8:30 am.
- Seats in the overflow courtroom will be first-come, first-served.
- There also will be seats available for members of the public in the courtroom where the proceeding will take place. These seats will be assigned in an equitable manner to interested members of the public who have arrived at the overflow courtroom by 9:30 am.
- All electronic devices must be powered off while in the overflow or “live” courtrooms.
